

I am very glad that XM radio has begun to broadcast local traffic reports for my area. Now I can get real-time information and plan alternate routes for my commute well before entering the reception area of traditional AM/FM stations.